

Truman Baker New Highway Commissioner

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus today named Truman Baker, a Searcy automobile dealer, to a 10-year term on the Arkansas Highway Commission. He succeeds Lawrence Blackwell of Pine Bluff.

The 63-year-old Baker was a highway commissioner under former Gov. Sid McMath during a period when Faubus served as highway director in 1952-53.

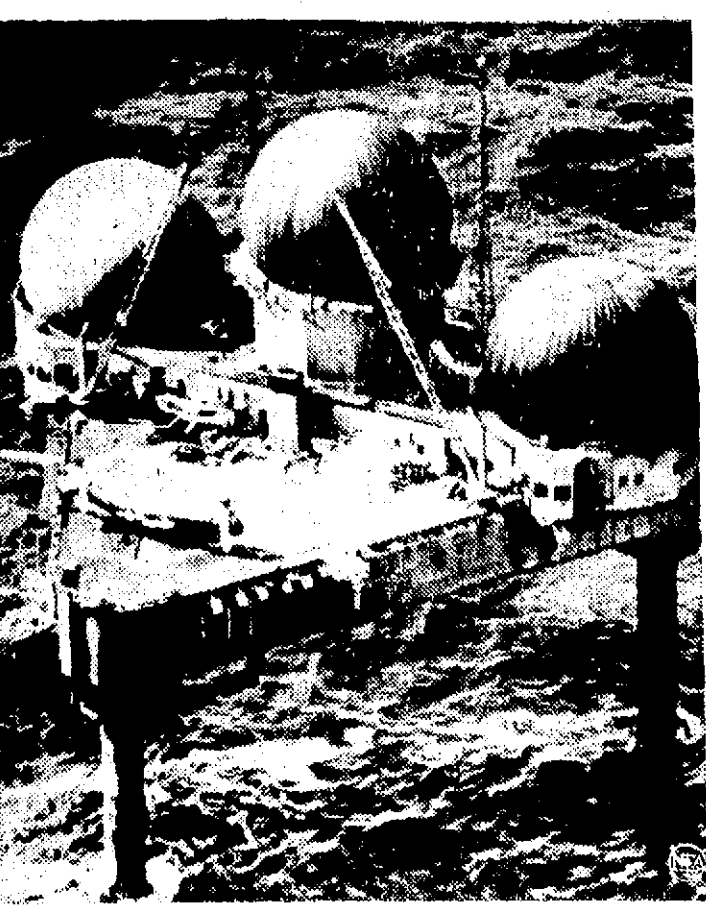

Baker is Faubus' sixth appointment to the five-member commission, but only four commissioners are Faubus appointees, because the governor has named two men to fill unexpired terms and then named their successors.

"This appointment does not mean I am dissatisfied with the work of Lawrence Blackwell," Faubus said. "He has been an excellent commissioner. I think if I ever get a chance to name another commissioner, I would appoint Blackwell. This was one of those cases in which a man in my position had to choose between two friends who are qualified for one job."

Faubus appointed Blackwell to the commission in 1958 to fill the unexpired term of Cecil Lynch of Pine Bluff, who was killed in an automobile accident. Blackwell was co-author of the Mack-Blackwell Amendment adopted in 1952 to take the Highway Commission out of politics.

Baker's appointment, subject to confirmation by the state Senate, gives the 2nd Congressional District.

Hall's Wife Appointed by Faubus

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Mrs. Nancy Hall was named today to succeed her husband, the late C. G. (Crip) Hall, as Secretary of State.

Mrs. Hall, appointed by Gov. Orval E. Faubus, will complete the rest of her husband's term, which runs through 1962. Under state law, she may not be a candidate for election to the office at the next general election.

Hall, Secretary of State since 1957 and dean of the state's elected officials, died Saturday just four days after he had been sworn in for his 13th consecutive term. His funeral was Monday.

Appointment of Mrs. Hall had been expected. She has served as an assistant in the office ever since her husband was first elected.

She was to be sworn in later today.

Hearing on Bond Issue Is Proposed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Perry Rep. Paul Van Dalsen said today he expects to introduce legislation to hold a public hearing on a proposed $50 million construction bond issue which would be supported by a soft drink tax.

The bill on the proposal is expected to be referred to the House committee of which Van Dalsen is chairman.

Van Dalsen said he won't set a definite date until he actually gets a request for such a hearing, but he added, "I personally think the measure should have a public hearing."

Legislators are to attend a dinner tonight to discuss the bond issue proposal with its supporters — the University of Arkansas, seven state-supported colleges, Arkansas Children's Colony, State Hospital and Arkansas Education Association.

The AEA also will outline a proposal to merge the state's teacher retirement system with the federal Social Security program.

The bond issue, proposed initially by the college presidents, has drawn the fire of bondholders and other persons. The proposed tax would be one cent per bottle.

Presbyterians to Install Officials

A special feature of the morning service at the Presbyterian Church, Sunday, will be the ordination and installation of new elders and deacons. Haskel Jones will be ordained an elder. M. C. Parsons, who was an elder in the Washington Church, will be installed as an elder.

Seven deacons who were re-elected will be installed include: Duffie Booth, Binford McRae, C. Stuart Jr., Finley Ward, Thomas McLarty, Thell Joplin, Clifford Stewart.

U. S., Canada Sign Columbia River Pact

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and Canadian Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker today signed a treaty for joint U.S.-Canadian development of the Columbia River resources. They hailed it as a milestone in international relations.

The pact is to run for at least 60 years and contemplate billions of dollars of construction.

Eisenhower and Diefenbaker signed the pact in a White House ceremony.

Beaming as he affixed his signature, the President said it is "indeed a great personal gratification" for him to be able to sign this treaty in the last few days of his White House tenure.

Diefenbaker told the President the relationship "between our two countries is a model for all mankind."

The ceremony was attended by a host of representatives of the two governments and several senators.

Democratic Senate Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said he hoped the treaty would receive Senate action in a month or two. Before going into effect, it must be approved by that body.

Mansfield expressed confidence that the treaty would be ratified.

The treaty is a culmination of some 10 years of work toward reaching an agreement that would apportion the benefits and costs of Columbia River basin development equitably and satisfactorily.

Under it, the United States has the option to build Libby Dam on the Kootenai River in northern Montana within five years after ratification. Libby was authorized by Congress in 1950.

It would back water 42 miles into Canada, and the treaty provides that Canada acquire the lands needed for this. Each nation would retain all benefits in its own territory which accrue from Libby.

Canada would build three dams on its side of the border providing more than 15 million acre feet of storage. The three projects would be at Arrow Lake, Mica Creek and Duncan Lake.

"They would be built at Canadian expense, but the United States would pay for flood control benefits as the structures are completed."

Elmer F. Bennett, undersecretary of interior, who was a member of the United States negotiating team, said it would cost some $710 million for the United States to provide similar water storage in the next 10 years. Under the treaty, including $322 million for the cost of Libby Dam, the total expense will add up to $433 million in 10 years for such storage.

Canada's cost for its development is set at $402 million.

Bennett pointed out that the United States has some $3.5 billion invested in water projects on the Columbia River. A major feature of the treaty, he said, is protection for 60 years against Canadian diversion of the Columbia River on its side of the border.

"Considering our Columbia investment, this protection becomes very important indeed," Bennett said.

Faubus in Defense of License Plan

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus Monday night defended his county vehicle license tax proposal as good legislation because, he said, it is permissive legislation.

Faubus spoke at the annual legislative banquet of the Arkansas County Judges Association. The judges met to go over legislation concerning counties which may come up in the 63rd Legislature.

Faubus proposed the license tax in his inaugural address last week. The bill would authorize either the people, by initiated act, or the county quorum court to levy a tax of not more than 55 in any county.

He said it would be good legislation because it left the decision to the people as to whether they wanted to levy the tax. He said the bill would only give them the power to levy the tax, which they do not now have.

"The money would be used for road improvement."

Garland Rep. Eugene (Bud) Canada addressed the judges earlier, telling them that his bill requiring them to take bids on purchases was fair legislation.

Canada said the bill brings the county judges under the state purchasing law, which governs state and municipal buying.

He said the bill would eliminate confusion and restore public confidence in courthouse officials.

Noting that industrial output dropped 2 per cent in December, Mansfield said every billion decline in gross national product costs the government between $130 and $300 million in revenue.

"The budget ignores the decreased income which results from current recession trends," he said.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, assistant Democratic leader, said the budget is going to have to be revised to "face up" to the economic recession that grips our country.

Revisions in Budget to Be Asked

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic leaders predicted today that the incoming Kennedy administration would ask substantial revisions in President Eisenhower's budget.

In view of the lagging economy, some Democrats challenged Eisenhower's contention that his $100.9 billion financial blueprint submitted to Congress Monday would provide enough income for a $1.5-billion surplus in the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Republicans generally defended the Eisenhower estimates. But some of them were critical of the proposal to put another $4 billion into foreign aid.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said Eisenhower had set aside only "minimum amounts" for housing, urban renewal and aid to education programs expected to be pushed by President-elect John F. Kennedy.

Mansfield said that Congress is likely to provide at least $100 million in depressed area assistance instead of the $10 million Eisenhower budgeted.

"The Democratic leader said the balance in the budget 'disappears on close inspection.' He indicated he doesn't believe Congress will raise postal rates $943 million or increase gasoline taxes $900 million. Eisenhower used these figures to bolster an estimated $92.3 billion in receipts."

Noting that industrial output dropped 2 per cent in December, Mansfield said every billion decline in gross national product costs the government between $130 and $300 million in revenue.

"The budget ignores the decreased income which results from current recession trends," he said.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, assistant Democratic leader, said the budget is going to have to be revised to "face up" to the economic recession that grips our country.

Passenger Train Hits Gas Truck, 9 Die, Six Hurt

MAGNOLIA, Miss. (AP)—A crack passenger train headed for Chicago—speeding through Magnolia at about 80 miles an hour—rammed into a gasoline truck at a crossing today, killing at least nine persons and injuring six.

The truck driver may not have seen the onrushing City of New Orleans and the train, not due to stop in Magnolia, rammed into the truck.

Among the dead were the train's engineer, J. A. Livingston of McComb, Miss., and fireman, John L. Collins of Jackson, Miss. The truck driver, identified as Morris Piggott, who operates a small store near Magnolia, also was killed.

Among the other dead were Bobby Gwin, a white laborer in the freight yards, and four Negro laborers unloading grain from nearby boxcars.

The explosion which followed the crash sent flaming gasoline spewing over the workers.

There was no report on how many passengers—if any—were injured. The nine-car train, one of the Illinois Central top passenger streamliners, left New Orleans at 7:10 a.m. and was due in Chicago at 11:40 p.m.

The train plowed into the truck with "a terrible explosion," Mrs. Wilma Gray told newsmen. She works in a drug store near the crash scene.

"Fire went everywhere," she said. "The front sections of the train were burned and killed several people. I don't guess I ever heard as loud an explosion."

Dr. Claude Pettley, a dentist, whose office is near the train yards, rushed to the scene when he heard the crash and saw Percy Nelson, a white train yard laborer, staggering down the tracks with his clothes aflame.

Pettley said he pulled the burning clothes from Nelson, who appeared calm and kept asking "about the other boys."

Magnolia is about 100 miles north of New Orleans.

Rebel Base in Laos Is Captured

By ROY ESSOYAN

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Pro-Western government troops pushed their way into Vang Vieng Monday and captured the strategic rebel base on the road to the royal capital of Luang Prabang after only slight resistance.

A dispatch from Associated Press cameraman Fred Waters said the town fell at 11:25 a.m. Monday after only a 30-minute battle.

Another government column was inching south from Luang Prabang, with plans for a linkup and then a turn east toward the rebel-held Plaine des Jarres. But the government's prospects were seriously dimmed by reverses on the southern front, where pro-Communist forces on Friday captured Ta Vieng, one of the government's staging bases for the planned offensive against the Plaine des Jarres.

The situation around Ta Thom, another government staging base, was confused. French sources said Ta Thom fell Sunday to rebels advancing from Ta Vieng. Other sources said it was still in government hands.

Waters reported rebel Capt. Kong Le had left 500 defenders in Vang Vieng and that they fell steadily back before a determined government push launched at dawn Monday. The government force was supported by rocket and machinegun fire from the Laotian army's four U.S.-supplied trainer-fighter planes.

The Soviet Union protested to the United States Monday that the rocket attacks in Laos by the U.S. supplied planes "tend to widen the conflict in Laos and to create a highly dangerous situation in that area."

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov, in a warning to U.S. ambassador Llewellyn E. Thompson against American aid to Premier Prince Boun Oum's armed forces, said the U.S. learned the Americans also intended to turn over some F-4 Thunderjet fighters.

In Washington, State Department press officer Lincoln White said he knew of no American plans to send jet fighters to Laos.

New Cabinet Distinguished by Diversity
WASHINGTON (AP) — President-elect John F. Kennedy's Cabinet is distinguished by its diversity.
It contains wealthy men and those of humble origin. It has seven Protestants, two Jews and one Catholic, Kennedy's brother.
It is drawn from the world of business, of scholarship and of government.
Some of the Cabinet members are longtime political associates of the president-elect. Others he knew only by reputation.
All of them will make $25,000 a year as Cabinet officers; for some it is quite a pay cut.
Here are sketches of the 10 men in the Kennedy Cabinet:
Secretary of State—Dean Rusk, 51, was president of the Rockefeller Foundation. Born on a farm in Georgia's Cherokee County, he won a Phi Beta Kappa key at Davidson College, then a Rhodes scholarship, became dean of faculty at Mills College at 25. Entered the State Department after World War II, rose to assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs, was a chief architect of U.S. Far Eastern policy. Joined Rockefeller Foundation in 1952. Married, three children. Presbyterian.
Secretary of Treasury—Douglas Dillon, 51, a wealthy man who believes in hard work. A Republican, moved over to Kennedy Cabinet from position as undersecretary of state for President Eisenhower. Banking family background, was chairman of the board of Dillon, Read & Co., Wall Street bankers, while still in his 30s. Has always advocated large-scale foreign economic aid. He was ambassador to France early

Voting Booth Bill Ready for House
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rep. Glenn F. Walther of Pulaski County said today he would have a voting booth bill ready for introduction in the House soon, probably this week.
Walther said the bill would propose appropriation of approximately $135,000 and would make it mandatory for a county judge to provide at least three voting booths for each polling place in his county.
Walther said his measure would repeat some of the "unrealistic provisions" of earlier laws for voting booths — laws which have been generally disregarded.
The new bill would earmark $15 for construction of each booth. Walther said cost estimates ranged from $15 downward.
On another matter, Rep. Raymond Mays of Cleveland County said he still plans to call his congressional redistricting proposal to a vote in the House Wednesday, and he said he sees no reason why it will not pass easily.
"The situation is still the same as it was when he left here Thursday," Mays said.
The House Reapportionment Committee will hold a public hearing on the bill at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday.
Mays said he had read that a Pine Bluff group would appear before the committee to oppose the bill but he knew of no other planned opposition.
The Mays proposal would put U. S. Reps. W. F. Norrell of Monticello and Oren Harris of El Dorado in a new Fourth District.
Reps. Dale Alford of Little Rock and Wilbur Mills of Kensett would be together in the new Second District.
Mays introduced his proposal on the opening day of the legislative session and apparently headed off a booming controversy over redistricting.
A duplicate bill has been adopted by the Senate, and Mays has 59 signatures on his House measure, eight more than are needed for passage.
Revive Relations
LONDON (AP)—Britain and the United Arab Republic completed arrangements over the weekend to reopen diplomatic relations, broken off during the 1956 Suez invasion.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Selection of four alternate jurors for the third Finch murder trial begins today following agreement Monday on a regular panel of nine men and three women.
Dr. R. Bernard Finch and his pretty paramour, Carole Tregoff, are charged in the fatal shooting of the physician's wife, Barbara Jean, on July 18, 1959. Two trials ended with deadlocked juries.

matter of FACT

Most courts today have more cases than they can try. But the Court of Chivalry in England is gathering dust. No cases were brought before the court from 1737 to 1954. Finally, in 1954, the city fathers of Manchester rose up in chivalrous wrath and filed suit against the Manchester Palace of Varieties for improper use of the city's coat of arms. The Palace is an amusement house.

Bowling Meet in 5th Day in California

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP) -As the All-Star Bowling Tournament entered the fifth day of eliminations today, this precedent-shattering prospect emerged:

For the first time in two decades, both of the defending champions may miss the finals.

Sylvia Wene, defending titlist in the women's ranks, already has withdrawn.

Harry Smith, the 1960 men's standard bearer, barely made it into the semifinals Monday. The slender St. Louis bowler felled 4,804 pins for the 24-game preliminaries bowled during the last four days.

With the cutoff for men at 4,757, Smith's margin was uncomfortably close for a champ. His score put him 76th among the 240 men who began qualifying last Friday.

Bill Bunetta, taciturn star of the Chicago Munsingwear team, shot 5,242 for the first 24 games to lead the 96 highest scorers into the men's semifinals today.

Robbie Frey of Dallas led the first day of women's semifinal action with 3,324 for 16 games.

Ingemar Says He Has a Secret Now

By ED CORRIGAN Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) - Ingemar Johansson has a secret and he's not telling a soul.

"I know for sure what I did wrong in my last fight with Floyd Patterson," he said today, "but let it be a secret with me."

Then he proceeded to list an armful of reasons why Patterson won the heavyweight championship from him with a fifth-round knockout last June 20.

1. He fought too many exhibitions after winning the title from Patterson in 1959, and that made things too easy for him.

2. He lost six pounds the night before the fight and entered the ring at 192. This time he wants to hit 196 or 198.

3. Anyhow, it was a sucker punch that caught him on the button.

Johansson arrived Monday night from Paris, and will attend the New York Boxing Writers dinner tonight where Patterson will get the Boxer of the Year award. Then he heads for Florida to look for a training camp. The third in their series is scheduled for Miami Beach on March 13.

"I've looked at the films of the fight many times," said Johansson and I still don't know how I ever got caught with that punch. It never happened to me before and I don't intend to let it happen this time.

"After all, I knocked Floyd out once and floored him in the second fight. I'm sure I'll win this one. I've knocked him out a thousand times in my dreams and I know they'll come true."

Willis picked up his pen and dipped it in the ink. "The first case is the State of Texas versus Indian George - no sur name known - and a man known as Three-Finger Halvorson, charged with unlawful alteration of cattle brands. 'How do you plead?'"

Browning, squatting in the dirt, with some paper on his lap, looking up. "Not guilty, your honor."

Willis wrote in his book, and said to Wheeler, "Proceed with the jury."

Wheeler took a folded and worn sheaf of papers from his vest pocket. He examined the first page and raised his head. "Stub Miller," he called in a loud voice.

A short, bow-legged man with long mustaches stood up in the crowd. "I'm him," he said.

Temple Houston, his hat off and his tawny hair gleaming in the sun, asked: "Mr. Miller, are you working on a ranch at the present time?"

"I'm ridin' line up on the Caprock for the Double Rafter."

"Are you willing to weigh the evidence according to the rules his honor will give you?"

"Do my best."

Houston bowed ceremoniously to Browning. Houston's tawny hair swayed forward and back with the movement. "Your panelman, Mr. Browning."

"You are aware," said Browning, "that in Texas only a property owner can sit on a jury."

"Yes sir. That is - real estate, you mean?"

"Exactly," said Browning with some sarcasm. "Are you a property owner, Mr. Miller?"

Miller must have been coached, for he was playing his answers close to his vest.

Browning asked loudly and with a fine air of imposed patience, "Of what property are you possessed, Mr. Miller?"

The panelman slapped the judge's bench with a folder paper. "I own lot No. 10, block 6, Goodnight's First Subdivision, Clarendon Outlots."

Bart could not restrain a smile. The man had memorized his answer perfectly, even to the legal description.

Browning glanced at the paper, stalling for time. He looked at the signature on the deed. "Mr. Miller, when did you buy this piece of property?"

"Last Friday."

"For what purpose?"

"So's I could sit on the jury to try them two cow thieves!"

Browning straightened and turned to Willis. "Your honor, this panelman admits prejudice."

Willis said quietly, "Not altogether, Mr. Browning. He has said also that he will judge the evidence by the court's instruction."

Browning wheeled to Miller. "How much, Mr. Miller, did you pay for this - this little kingdom?"

"One dollar," Miller said.

Browning restrained himself, promptly.

"I even doubt that such a lot exists."

Temple Houston said courteously,

"Does counsel wish to call Charles Goodnight, who had the outlots surveyed, and have him sworn?"

Browning glared at Houston. "For a nickel I would," he said under his breath.

Houston ostentatiously took his hand from his vest pocket and held out a coin.

Browning snapped, "Mr. Miller, it is a well known fact that cow hands are usually paid on the first of the month, is it not?"

"I never been paid any other time except on a trail drive."

"Now, then, this is the 22nd. Do you mean to tell the court that you had money left over from the first of June?"

"No, sir. I drew the dollar to pay for the lot."

Browning nodded wisely. "So then the money did not come out of your pocket at all?"

"It came out of my wages."

"Do you maintain that this lot actually cost you $1 in money?"

"Well, not exactly. Everybody who bought a lot gets a one-dollar raise this month."

"Mr. Miller," said Judge Willis, "have you been advised as to how long this one-dollar pay raise will be in effect?"

"For keeps," said Miller. "They told us it was permanent."

Browning, to gain time, said to Miller, "Mr. Miller, tell me how it feels to be a property owner in this glorious part of the world?"

But Miller said with unexpected dignity: "Mr. Browning, I mighta thought it was a joke when I bought this here lot, but I don't think so no more. I never owned no land before, and I got to say it makes me feel real proud to say I bought a piece of real estate in Clarendon, real proud to own a little bitty piece of Texas. If I'd of known how I was gonna feel, I'd of been willing to pay a lot more for it."

It's making a man of him

Many a dad points with pride to the benefits his son is deriving from newspaper route management.

Under the guidance of men who are interested in and trained to work with boys, it channels youthful energies into an "on-the-job" training program that teaches them:

- how to make money (and an appreciation of what to do with it);
- how to get along with people;
- the importance of service and punctuality;
- the thrill of making a sale.

Only about one boy in ten gets this opportunity. If you think your son might profit by newspaper route experience, why not suggest that he come in and talk to us?

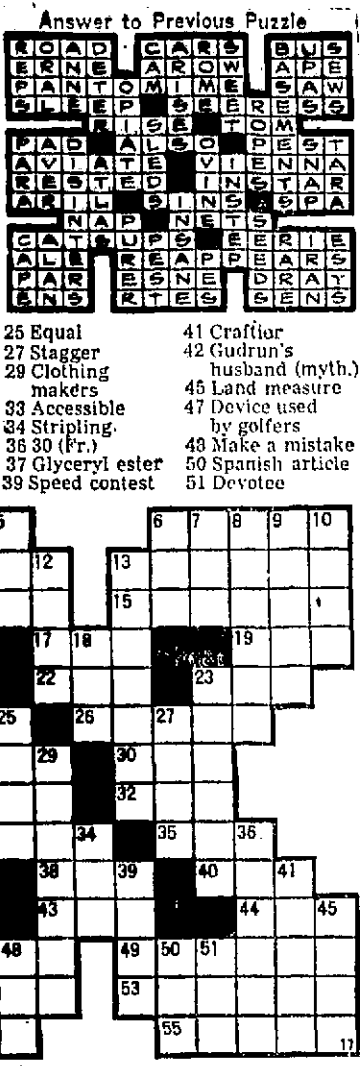

It's the greatest part-time job available for youngsters today according to Educators, Civic Leaders and Juvenile Authorities.

Mantle Signs Contract for $75,000

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Is Mickey Mantle going to be baseball's next $100,000 a year baseball player?

"We hope so," said General Manager Roy Hamey of the New York Yankees after signing his star center fielder to a $75,000 contract Monday. "We'd like nothing better than to pay—that is, if Mickey shows he's worth it."

"I don't doubt he will. Casey Stengel always insisted the boy was going to make it."

Mantle's new contract is the best he has signed in his 11 years with the Yankee organization—a $10,000 hike over the reduced wage he got last year.

Mickey, 29, said he felt he had not reached his real potential as a player. "I don't remember when I have felt better at this

Independents Beat Nashville

The Spring Hill Independent cage team licked Nashville 74 to 46 last night to boost their wins to 10 against two losses. Odom, May, Lowe, Sooter, Townsend and Halford make up the team.

The group plays a team from Fouke at Spring Hill tonight and any team playing independent basketball, who would like to schedule games with this team are asked to contact Wayne Lowe, Phone PR 7-3241, Hope.

Texarkana in Double Win Over Hope

By Vince Foster

Texarkana took 2 games from Hope last night there as the Lady Cats were on the short end of a 32-27 score, and the B boys were taken 36 to 27.

Texarkana's Ladies jumped to a quick 16-7 halftime score and then had to fight off a threatening Hope squad as the score was 22-17 in the third period. In the final quarter both teams scored 10 points. Last week the Lady Cats took Texarkana here 30-28.

Nita Messer was high for the Cats with 11 points, followed by Lera Calicut with 10. Judy Robinson 4, and Brenda Mitchell 2. Presswood and Otwell were high for Texarkana with 12 each.

The Hope B boys gave the Big 9 squad a good game, but the hosts led 9-6 in the first, 20-14 at the half and 29-20 in the third period. On their home court last week the B boys lost by 18 points, this week by 9. Maybe there's hope in the Hope B boys.

Billy Compton was high man with 10 points, while Yours truly took 5. Walker sank 4 and Baber, Burns, Gilbert and Horton took 2 each. Hucklebee was high for the hosts with 9.

Tonight the Bobcats and the Kittens travel to Gurdon. On Saturday night they play host to Magnolia in a conference game.

Heppo Has Edge in Scoring

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Jim Reppo of Henderson State Teachers College holds a heavy edge in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference scoring race with a 27.1 points per game average. His closest competitor is Cleve Branscum of College of the Ozarks who has a 24.8 average.

Ken Saylor of Arkansas Tech is third with 22.8, and Francis Rogers of Arkansas College is fourth with 20.2.

Reppo last week scored 42 points against Tech and 35 against Harding.

stage," he said. "I ought to have my best year."

He added that he had disposed of a Dallas bowling alley, which caused him some concern last year, and had divested himself of all outside interests which might take his mind off baseball.

"I still have a small hand in a motel (Joplin, Mo.) and a boat company (Henderson, Tex.) but I'm letting other people worry about them," Mickey said. "I have no other business now but baseball."

At $75,000, Mantle is the highest paid performer in the American League and only a notch behind the National League's top-salaried star, Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants, at $85,000.

Mantle, who struck out 125 times last season but hit 40 home runs, said his aim was to cut down on strikeouts and build up his batting average, which fell to .275.

Kansas State Goes to Top of Big Eight

BY JOHN CHANDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Kansas State was all alone at the top of the Big Eight basketball conference today after Oklahoma State's Cowboys rode herd on Kansas and knocked the Jayhawks out of first place.

Tenth ranked Kansas State, beaten in a playoff last spring by Kansas for the right to enter the NCAA tournament, is primed to meet Kansas in a major showdown Friday night on the Jayhawk court at Lawrence. Last month in the Big Eight tournament, K-State beat Kansas in overtime in the finals, 69-66.

The tight defense and controlled offense of Coach Hank Iba's Oklahoma State crew paid off Monday night at Lawrence, and it was the coach's son, Alue, who clinched the 54-49 decision.

With the Cowboys leading only 50-49 and 34 seconds left, young Iba sank two free throws and Kansas was done, suffering their initial conference defeat after three victories.

Two of the top 10 teams in The Associated Press poll saw action, with fourth-ranked Iowa coming from behind in the last half on Don Nelson's 18 points to beat Illinois 78-71 in a Big Ten Conference game. Iowa, now 12-1 for the season, remains in the Big Ten lead with a 4-0 mark. Nelson finished with 25 points, while Jerry Colangelo had 20 for Illinois.

North Carolina (No. 6) ran up its ninth straight victory for an 11-2 overall mark by downing Maryland 58-52 in an Atlantic Coast Conference tilt. The Tar Heels now boast a 4-0 league mark, right after eighth-ranked Duke (5-0), idle until after mid-term examinations, Doug Moore got 26 points for North Carolina, which scored its final 12 points from the free throw line.

Mississippi State took over undisputed lead in the Southeastern Conference (4-0) by defeating Georgia Tech 62-61 in overtime. State's Jerry Graves came up with six points, four in the final minute of the extra session and totaled 23 for the evening. Roger Kaiser tallied 31 for Georgia Tech.

Vanderbilt, which had an 11-0 record before losing Saturday to Mississippi State, dropped a second straight conference game when Mississippi beat the Commodores 74-72. The teams were tied 11 times before the Rebels took the lead midway in the second half. Jack Waters had 33 points for Mississippi, while Vanderbilt's Bill Depp had 23.

Wake Forest poured it on in the last 10 minutes of an Atlantic Conference game to bury Clemson 86-83, and give the Deacons a 7-1 league mark behind Duke and North Carolina. Len Chappell plunked in 33 points for Wake Forest, while Choppy Patterson had 24 for the losers.

The Citadel, which had been in a 5-1 tie with West Virginia and Virginia Tech for the Southern Conference lead, dropped to second place when Furman defeated the Cadets 92-84. Furman's Jerry Smith (28) and Gerald Glur and Tom Conrad (22 each) did the big damage.

Colorado, which had been 2-1 behind Kansas and Kansas State in the Big Eight race, dropped a 36-47 decision to Oklahoma. The Texas Longhorns, in a three-way tie with Texas A&M and Texas Tech for the Southwest Conference lead, took over sole possession of first place by downing A&M 81-76. Texas is now 4-1, with Tech 3-1 and A&M 3-2. Carroll Broussard collected 37 points for A&M while Albert Almanza had 23 for Texas.

Qualifying Rounds in Crosby Open

By P. D. ELDRED
Associated Press Sports Writer

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Qualifiers for 16 open professional spots in Bing Crosby's $50,000 national pro-amateur golf classic were fighting it out today over the treacherous Pebble Beach course preparatory to the start of championship play Thursday.

Survivors of the qualifying test will fill out field of 150 of the world's finest professionals, paired with an equal number of classy amateurs in this 20th playing of the famed Crosby clambake.

Defending titlist Ken Venturi, now shooting some of his best golf, will be on hand to attempt the difficult and rarely accomplished feat of repeating against the likes of Arnold Palmer plus a host of other former Crosby champions and tournamentwise aces.

Palmer, noted for his surging finishes and leading money winner in the nation last year, will undoubtedly be the man to watch after coming from four strokes behind to win the San Diego Open Sunday in a "sudden death" playoff with Canada's Al Balding.

In the pro-amateur event, which along with the professional competition makes the Crosby a double tournament, Louisiana's Jay Hebert and his five-handicap amateur partner, Roger Kelly, will be on hand again to try to duplicate their 1959 victory.

Bud Ward and Bob Silvestri, pro-am winners last year, are teamed again in defense of their title.
